Perused your message on NC/SC ROOTS and you seem to be a great prospect for our Orangeburgh mailing list. Your 25 years of experience researching the KIRKLAND Family would surely be of help to our users. We are a group of serious researcher with a primary interest in the people of the old Orangeburgh SC District. Needless to say, the Fairfax Co. VA Kirklands had a tremendous influence on the old Orangeburg area.

I have copied a large portion of Vol. 1 and Vol. 2 of the Kirkland research papers from JoAnn Jones Beagle (CA). As noted, there are numerous John Kirklands. Have you ideas about your John born abt 1755?

If you would like to join our small semi-listserv (abt 40) just send a message and give us a little info about yourself, the SC families researching, time frame, your snail mail address, etc. All researchers on The List are helpful, sharing individuals.

Thank you for your reply. I have been researching my Kirkland line since the early 1970's. It began by my promising my grandfather that I would discover where his Grandfather went when he "ran off" from his wife and children in ca. 1875. I learned to do the research by traveling to county (parish) courthouses and poring over the records. Also learned from librarians who were very kind and helpful in the Dallas Library. I have obtained, some years ago, the Kirkland Source Books.

My research has connected me to John Kirkland. He was a revolutionary patriot in South Carolina and was paid for supplies furnished the Continental Army and South Carolina Militia in 1780 and 1781. In 1797 he lived in Bulloch County, GA. In 1840 he was a member of the Hebron

Baptist Church in Bulloch Co., GA. He was b. ca. 1755. He married twice.
First to Selah_____ and then to Keziah_____.

His son Ralph was b. circa 1775 in Beaufort Co., S.C. By 1809 he had lived and moved away form Bulloch and Pulaski Counties, GA. After 1823 he was in
Leon Co., FLA. Then he went to Early Co., GA.

Daniel Leander Kirkland was one of Ralph Kirkland's children. He was born app. 1807 in either S.C. or GA. In 1833 he is married to Sarah_____ and living in Fla. He had three children all born in Florida by Sarah.
Elizabeth b.1833; Nancy b. 1835; Rebecca b. 1837.

In 1840 they are living in Early Co. GA. He has 10 slaves.

In 1850 he is in Catahoula Parish LA.with Sarah and their three daughters.

In 1860 Sarah dies of pneumonia in Catahoula Parish.

In 1865 he is in Winn Parish LA. He marries a widow, Martha Jane Adams
Perkins. They have four children all born in Winn Parish, LA. Daniel Leander Jr. b. 1865; Charlie William b. 1867; Moses Elnathan b. 1870; Martha
P. b. 1873.

In approximately 1878, Daniel Leander gathers his wife and children together in the front yard of their home. He tells them all good bye and that he can not take it anymore. He rides away on a horse.

In 1880 he is on the Tyler County Texas census. He lives in the home of his nephew David Alderman Kirkland. He sells tinware for a living.
Sometime
just after this census he went back to LA and asked his wife to take him back. She refused. He rode away again. There is no other record of him.
He would have been approximately 75 years of age.

Dan

The "Kirkland Papers" I referenced are the same ones you indicated you have - I believe. Two Volumes of Kirkland research materials. Vol. 1 put together by Mrs. Schlandensky (VA), Mrs. Kirkland (SC), Mrs. Green (GA), and Mrs. Leonard (AL); about 400 pages. Vol. 2 compiled by Mae Ruth Green and Wilma C. Kirkland (1988), over 500 pages. I copied the South Carolina
materials (not all materials) but that is well over 500 pages total.
The
provider sent me a Christmas card and said more information was forthcoming.

The "Kirkland Research-2" indicates I had previous sent a message to the List on the Kirkland Family back on June 13th. It was basically the same but I went further (I thought but see it was cut off) on Research 2 message.

In any event and this is TO ALL:
We started The List on 1 June 1995. I have retained all messages sent to The List on my computer (I hope). I will gladly provide any user a copy of these messages for their personal use. I ask that you do not further distribute the message database. I feel any member of The List contributes and shares their information should have access to previous posts.

Gene:

In your first letter to me you mentioned a "Kirkland Paper" that a person had written. Later you sent me an E-Mail with subject "Kirkland Research-2".....there was no 1.

Is this a partial copy of the Kirkland Paper you mentioned? I would like to see the Kirkland Paper if you have access. Also, in a posting I saw mention of a History of Orangeburgh. How can I obtain that. The postings I have seen are fascinating. Your group seems quite research oriented almost as one would find in a University graduate program. This is refreshing.

Jim,

Received the copies of the Andrea info and the very helpful info on the YAWN family. I have put off entering all the info I have on the SC families after 1825 when my line migrated to Georgia. I will now do so. Thank you very much for all the info you have provided.

Dan,

I hope I did not give you the impression that you could not obtain the Kirkland info I have. I will share all I have and give you Mrs. Beals address but I was hoping to get another package and would make you a copy if you wanted. I have corrected the spelling of your name. Are you a member of AGS? I see you are interested in gravestones.

Lynn,

Received a good copy of the Shuler Bible and will take to my meeting of the OGS-GS Executive Board on 10 February. Will also take a copy of the

Mr. Dreher,

Have you a copy of Rev. Godfrey Drehr's Journal? Brent Holcomb has published. In his introduction he states Godfrey Drehr was born 4 Dec 1789, the son of John and Ann Drehr. He should not be confused with his uncle by the same name. He goes on to reference the Early Records of St.

Michael's Lutheran Church, The South Carolina Magazine of Ancestral Research Vol. IV, #4 and A History of the Lutheran Church in South Carolina.

I sure would like to share information on this line up to this Rev. Godfrey

Dreher as his journal is one of the earliest records of marriages etc. in the Orangeburgh/Saxe-Gotha area.

TO ALL:

Does anyone have a comment or suggestion they would like for me to bring

Gene,

Per your suggestion attempted to lend a hand to Barbara today. Snailed her a pkg showing two SC's moving to AL.

Was amused at one aspect. I found Moses Kirkland Sr and Jr moving to AL. Must have been more than one pair of Moses Sr and Jr according to your listing.

Same problem that Dr A O Collins is having. He is descended from Moses Collins that moved from SC to GA then to MS. He has found several Moses Collins and needs badly to know the Father and Mother of his Moses Collins.

Barbara needs badly to get into the SC Mag of Ancestral Research. Today I found between 50 and a 100 Kirkland listings in the index for that magazine. Too many to copy and send.

We have the entire set down here if she cannot find a set in middle MS.

Regards,

Jim

Thanks so much for help on the KIRKLAND family. We had the SC you're talking about in Tupelo and probably do in Brookhaven, but I usually spend all my time looking at my husband's MS lines. Next time I go to Brookhaven, I'll see what they have.

Thanks again. Let me know what I can help you with and I will

MISSISSIPPI

The Territory of Mississippi was formed 1798 from that part of the area of the 13 original states south of Tenn. and west of Ga. and was part of the area under the jurisdiction of the Fed. Govt. Its area included lands of the then powerful Indian nations, Chickasaw in the north and Choctaw in the south of the western part, the Creek in the eastern part, and the Cherokee in the northwestern part. The Dist. of Mobile, part of the province of W. Fla., which had previously at various times been Spanish, British, and French territory and was included in the La. Purchase of 1803, was added 14 May 1812 to the Terr. of Miss. which thereby comprised the present states of Miss. and Ala. The Terr. of Ala. was formed from it 3 Mar. 1817. The remainder of the Terr. of Miss. was admitted to statehood 10 Dec. 1817. The original counties of what is now the state of Miss. were formed from the Natchez Dist., the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indian cessions and the Dist. of Mobile. (Taken from "Kinfolks" by Harllee).

KNOWN DESCENDANTS OF MOSES KIRKLAND
(Tory Moses, son of Richard)

MOSES KIRKLAND sailed from Tybee with a fleet bound for Jamacia in 1782. He previously had removed from South Carolina to Ebenezer, Georgia, about 25 miles from Savannah. He was banished from South Carolina and Georgia by legislative acts passed in Jacksonborough, S. C. 26 February 1782 and in Georgia 4 May 1782.¹ On the 15 May 1783, St. George Parish, Jamacia Islands, we find MOSES swearing before JOHN LOWE that he was formerly a planter of 96 of the Province of South Carolina, which place he was obliged to leave for motives of loyalty, and that he arrived with 41 slaves and intended to become a settler of this island.² Several old land transactions are found in Jamacia for MOSES, but they tell us nothing more about his family or of him. On Nov. 8, 1786, MOSES made his will, naming his wife CATHERINE, his son RICHARD BRUCE KIRKLAND, and mentioning his wife's sister, ANN BRUCE. JOHN BRUCE was one of the executors of this will.³ It is said that MOSES KIRKLAND, JR. married this ANN BRUCE, but we have found no record to prove it.⁴ On 23 July 1788, WM. BULL, late Gov. of South Carolina, swore that MOSES KIRKLAND had been an officer in the Militia and of the King, that he bore the character of an honest and industrious man, that he was obliged to abandon his property and his wife, that MOSES went to Jamacia from whence Gov. BULL received a letter from MOSES signifying his intention of coming to London to present his claim before the Board.⁵ Just the day before, Catherine had stated that she married her late husband in Jamacia in 1783, that MOSES left a son by a former marriage, about 22 years old and and she had a son by MOSES named RICHARD BRUCE KIRKLAND, about 3 years old. She stated MOSES had been lost at sea on his way to London to have his claims examined.⁶ We know nothing else about CATHERINE KIRKLAND. We do not even know her age. Did she return to Jamacia, or did she stay in London? Or, did she come to the United States? On 2 Oct. 1788, found among the Memorial papers of MOSES, is one where MOSES, JR. made oath before PETER INGRAM, SR., Magistrate for Parish of St. George in Jamacia, as to the value of his father's estate in Georgia and South Carolina.⁷ From here until 4 Dec. 1799, we lose touch with MOSES, JR. He then makes his petition before the General Assembly in South Carolina, trying to reclaim what part of his father's lands that have not been sold.⁸ In 1812, St. George Parish, Jamacia, we find RICHARD BRUCE is still there, being a J. P., an AJCCP and a vestryman.⁹ We lose touch with RICHARD BRUCE after this. No further records were found on him in Jamacia by our searcher, but

5. PHILLIP PEARSON KIRKLAND d. in Jamacia 14 Sept. 1831, age 41.¹⁰ He left a will dated 13 Sept. 1831, probated 30 Mar. 1832.¹¹ His will mentioned property called Devon, wife ANNA MARIA, son ROBERT WILLIAM to be brought home from school in England, dau. ADELE MATILDA, son PHILLIP PEARSON KIRKLAND, daus. ANNA MARIA & EMILE AGLIE. After his debts were paid, he wanted his exors. who were his brothers ROBERT GRAY & WILLIAM PITT KIRKLAND, and ALEXANDER JAMES BRYNER, to remove the balance of his estate to America. A last request was that his wife remove to America with the children as soon as possible and the above named brothers were named as trustees for his children. Witnesses were CHARLES R. KIRKLAND, CHRISTAIN CLACHAR & WM. FORSYTH HENDERSON. PHILLIP PEARSON KIRKLAND had married ANNA MARIA OSTERLAND Sept. 26, 1818.¹²
6. WILLIAM PITT KIRKLAND, in 1841 was a J.P. & AJCCP in St. Thomas in the East and manager of the Savings Bank, also, according to the Feurtado MS. In 1865 index is this - WM. PITT KIRKLAND et al, Conveyance, L 942 F75. (In 1854, L 127 F 45 there is a will of one WM. KIRKLAND who names dau. ADELE MATILDA, wife, not named, cousin ROBERT KIRKLAND, sister ANNA MARIE CARTER, friend ELIZABETH MANN, sister MARIA MANN, sister DOROTHY GUSCOTT, brother ROBERT DUNBAR KIRKLAND, mentions property at Hope Bay & Buff Bay).
7. CHARLES RAIFORD, in 1822 & 1823, according to the Jamacia Alamanac, was owner of Sportsman Hall. MOSES, JR. willed this to him in his will of 1824. On 13 Sept. 1831, CHARLES RAIFORD KIRKLAND was witness to will of his brother PHILLIP PEARSON KIRKLAND.¹³ We have nothing further on him.
8. ROBERT GRAY KIRKLAND, according to the Feurtado MS in Jamacia, was in 1811 a vestryman in St. George Parish; in 1812 a J.P. and AJCCP; in 1813 an Ensign in St. George Militia; in 1820 a Lt.; and in 1825 a Capt. His marriage record, L 1 F 244, says that he married 8 July 1829 MARGARETTE ELIZABETH, dau. of the late JOHN POLSON MacDONALD at Buff Bay. Feurtado MS says he was in 1849 postmaster at St. George Parish and a vestryman in 1854. From "Monumental Inscriptions of Jamacia" compiled by PHILLIP WRIGHT, p. 298, Golden Grove, St. Andrews Church, # 3033, we find: ROBERT GRAY KIRKLAND, ESQ., d. 19 Sept. 1867, aged 73 (?). I have sought for many years to prove, in a positive manner, that MOSES KIRKLAND was a son of RALPH KIRKLAND, who moved from Bulloch or Emanuel County about 1812 to Pulaski County. RALPH KIRKLAND was a son of JOHN KIRKLAND, SR., who died in Bulloch Co., in 1805. RALPH KIRKLAND administered the estate. In 1820, RALPH KIRKLAND has in his household a male under age 10, 2 males age 10/16, and 3 males age 16/26. One of the latter was almost surely my MOSES KIRKLAND. I can prove that MOSES was not the son of any other KIRKLAND in Ga. at the time, but have found no positive proof that he belonged to RALPH. If anyone knows anything about RALPH KIRKLAND after 1840 when he joined the Hebron Baptist Church in Emanuel Co. by letter, I would be so grateful to have the record.

DAVID DYKES, the father of ELIZABETH DYKES, died in Barnwell Dist., S.C.
1809, when the widow, ELIZABETH, was given money from his estate to bring their children to Georgia. The estate was administered by GEORGE DYKES and was closed out 29 Nov. 1815. This information was furnished me through the kindness of Mrs. Edwin C. Young, 469 Terrell Mill Road, Marietta, Georgia, 30060, a very fine professional genealogist.

MOSES KIRKLAND and his wife, ELIZABETH DYKES, had LEWIS GREEN KIRKLAND-(1823--4 Feb. 1884), WILLIAM H. KIRKLAND (5/16/1827--1866), JOHN JOSEPH KIRKLAND (1829--), MOSES F. KIRKLAND (1830--2/12/1858, DAVID ALTMAN KIRKLAND (10/1/1833-1927), ANN E. KIRKLAND (1827--), JACOB H.
KIRKLAND (1839--5/15/1862 CSA), an unknown daughter.

MOSES KIRKLAND died in May of 1860 in Louisiana, very likely in Catahoula Parish, where two of his sons lived by that time. On the 1860 Census of that parish ANN E. KIRKLAND and her son, JACOB, are in the household of DANIEL KIRKLAND, brother to MOSES. ANN ELIZABETH (DYKES) KIRKLAND returned to Georgia, where she spent the rest of her life; applying in 1879 from Miller County for a pension on the War of 1812 record of her husband, MOSES KIRKLAND, and also his service in the Indian Wars of the 1830's. At that time, she was in the home of her son, JOHN JOSEPH KIRKLAND.

LEWIS GREEN KIRKLAND married MARY JANE PICKLE, dau. of RICHARD and ELIZABETH PICKLE of Lenoir County, N.C., to Early Co., Georgia, on 10/10/1850 in Early County, Georgia. (my line)

I will be pleased to exchange records with anyone who descends from MOSES and ELIZABETH (DYKES) KIRKLAND, and will appreciate any records anyone might have on RALPH KIRKLAND.

Story starts in Moss Point

Woman's search for birth

By SUSAN RUDDIMAN
Coastlines Editor

When Shirley White of Casper, Wyo., started the search for the woman who gave birth to her 22 years ago, she never dreamed it would have a fairy tale ending.

Not only did she find her birth mother, but she also found her biological father.

Shirley's mother and father were married some three years after her birth and had since had two more children. Thus, Shirley's new found family included a brother and sister, too.

They were united recently in an emotional reunion in Bishopville, S.C., the home of Shirley's parents who are Mr.

and Mrs. Benny Kirkland.

The story started many years ago in Moss Point.

Benny Kirkland is one of the 12 children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kirkland of Gene Street, Moss Point. He first met Robin Eastig at Hollis' Skating Rink.

"I just flipped over her," Benny said. At that time, he was 13 and she was 12.

Robin lived with her family in Moss Point on Poplar Street. The young couple started going steady and spent practically every weekend at the skating rink.

Two years later, when Robin was just 15 and Benny just 16, Robin and her mother took a trip to California.

Robin gave birth to a daughter in California, a birth that was unknown to Robin's family except for her mother. Benny's family knew about the baby, according to his youngest sister, Janise Day of Moss Point.

Mrs. Day said Benny thought that Robin would return with the baby, but instead she left the infant in California for adoption.

"It's been hell, really, for Robin and I both. All these years we thought about this girl here, believe me. We thought about her constantly. We always wondered where she was at, what kind of lifestyle she had, whether she was being abused or not," Benny said.

Benny and Robin broke up shortly after Robin returned from California. Then one Christmas, Benny called Robin and they got back together again. They were married May 6, 1972, in a simple outdoor ceremony at a home in Gautier.

YOUNG COUPLE — This portrait of Robin Easttrig and Benny Kirkland was taken shortly before their marriage in 1972. The couple had already had one daughter who had been given up for adoption. Shirley White found her parents 22 years later.

Kirkland's Bakery in Escatawpa where Robin worked, too. They closed the business in 1981 and moved to Florida to start another bakery. When that business was sold, they moved to Bishopville, S.C. where Benny went to work for American National Can Co.

The couple had two more children, Damon, who is now 17, and Kristy, 11.

The Kirklands had assumed that their first daughter had been adopted by a California couple because she was born in that state. Instead, a couple from Wyoming adopted Shirley and she was reared as an only child.

Shirley recalled she was 10 when she was told she was adopted.

"For the last six years I really thought about it," Shirley said. It wasn't until the past few months that she developed an "I'm-going-to-do-this" attitude.

Shirley originally thought her parents were from California. To help her in her search, her adoptive parents gave her some information and a photograph of her biological parents. Robin had given the photo to her daughter at the time of her birth. It had probably been taken at Jackson County Fair in Pascagoula, Mrs. Day said.

With only her biological mother's name to go by, Shirley did research at the local library and that took her to Mississippi.

Shirley ended up calling Robin's brother, Gary Easttrig, in Mobile, Ala. Since Gary had no idea his sister had ever given birth to a child when she was 15, he thought the telephone call was a hoax, Mrs. Day said.

Gary took Shirley's name and telephone number and then called Robin in South Carolina. Though he kept telling Robin the call was a joke, Robin eventually got the telephone number from her brother.

Robin then called Shirley for their first in what has been many telephone conversations. Robin had the wonderful news that not only did she marry Shirley's father, but Shirley also had a younger brother and sister.

Within two days of their first telephone contact, Shirley was greeted by her new family at Columbia, S.C., Metropolitan Airport.

"They pointed me out before I ever saw them. They knew," said Shirley, who shares a strong resemblance to her mother.

After spending a long weekend with her new family, Shirley returned to her husband, Thad White, in Casper. Her husband is in a family marine business and she is a secretary.

The Kirkland family in Moss Point is looking forward to meeting their new-found relative, though it probably won't be until next summer, Mrs. Day said. But when Shirley does visit, she will have a lot of aunts, uncles and cousins to greet.

FAMILY UNITED — Shirley White, (center) meets her brother, Damon Kirkland, 17, and her sister, Kristy Kirkland, 11, for the first time recently.
